Clarification on the Status of Rights

Within the framework of the Discovery Campus Masterschool, only those documentary filmmakers who have the proprietary authority to further develop their submitted projects as regards content and their exploitation can be supported.

Therefore we require the following information.
Please tick the appropriate options.

I hereby apply for participation in the Discovery Campus Masterschool 2008.

- I am an author / director and hereby affirm that all copyrights to my submitted exposé(s) lie solely with me.
- I am a producer and affirm that I am entitled to proceed with the realization and exploitation of the submitted project(s). All written agreements with the concerned authors exist with me and can be made available at any time.
- I am a commissioning editor and affirm that I am authorized by my employer for the editorial supervision of the submitted material(s) and to seek international co-financing partners for this (these). I will promptly produce a written authorization accordingly in the case of my selection for the Discovery Campus Masterschool.
- I am unable to tick any of the above options and enclose with my application a separate statement on the status of rights to the exposé(s) submitted by me.

How did you hear about the Masterschool?
